

The Oatka Edition

Finding Heaven on Earth

Upon entering Westwood Commons in North Chili, you will meet your first angel. This would be the archangel, who runs this heavenly home like a fine tuned instrument. Everyone is greeted with a warm smile, and by name. She answers any and all questions, and can handle several requests at the same time, yet never gets flustered. Her pleasant disposition and positive attitude is carried on by all the other angels working here.

These female and male angels come in a variety of shapes, sizes, ages and ethnic backgrounds. But there is one common trait shared by all these angels: a genuine passion and dedication for what they do. Each resident in this heavenly home is treated with respect, love and patience. They listen, sympathize and comfort. These angels give of themselves generously and lovingly. They are kind, considerate, thoughtful and sensitive to the needs of all the residents. Not only do they go above and beyond what needs to be done, but usually more, just to make life better for someone else. Their kindness brings with it a ray of sunshine to everyone's day. They make what can be a difficult job appear easy.

As my mom says, "This must be what heaven is like!"

Patricia A. Restall

Share your angel with Penny Saver readers. He or she just might inspire others to be an angel, too! Submit at gvpennysaver.com under My Hometown.

