

GATES-CHILI POST

Thursday, February 4, 2016

www.gateschilipost.com

Vol. 17, No. 6 ■ 50 cents

COMMUNITY

HATS OFF FOR HAT DAY

Residents at Westwood Commons in North Chili recently celebrated National Hat Day.

PAGE A5

Glad Hatters

Westwood Commons residents celebrate National Hat Day

Residents at Westwood Commons, a DePaul Senior Living Community in North Chili, recently celebrated National Hat Day on Jan. 15 by donning caps of all colors, shapes and styles. "We laughed so hard at looking at each other it became a quite the social hour," said activities director Cathy Toney.

Dorothy Harkness, a Westwood Commons resident, wears a wig to celebrate National Hat Day. PHOTOS PROVIDED/AMY CAVALIER

Counter-clockwise, from above: Rosemary Stagg is crowned queen. Florence VanCott wears a fuzzy hat. Frank DiNitto wears a straw hat to celebrate National Hat Day at Westwood Commons.

