SHARE YOUR PHOTOS

Our Towns invites readers to submit their photos to be published here weekly and on our online community galleries. Send along photos of your life in your town (your child's sporting event, the school play or a restaurant's grand opening, for example). Send your photos by going to RocTowns.com. Choose your community and click on "Submit photos." Community news items may be sent by email to Roc-Info@DemocratandChronicle.com.

AMY CAVALIER OF ROCHESTER shares this photo of Doris Hewitt, a resident of Woodcress Commons in Henrietta, which commemorated Earth Day by creating colorful planters out of aluminum cans and then planting seeds for their summer garden in them.
