

Heath House residents celebrate Easter with party, egg hunt

Minnie Lovelace and Peggy Brown show off their eggs.

Heath House resident Bernice Rudisill participates in an Easter egg hunt

Heath House resident Leila Carpenter and Houston Hall, son of Heath House maintenance director James Hall, color Easter eggs.

Heath House residents in Lincolnton revisited their youth and celebrated Easter by dyeing hard boiled eggs and participating in an Easter egg hunt. Volunteers from Walgreens donated their time assisting with the Heath House Easter party, and youth from Laboratory United Methodist church helped residents with coloring eggs.