Inspiring generations at Wheatfield Commons

Fri, Oct 4th 2024 07:00 am

Seniors of Wheatfield Commons, a DePaul Senior Living Community in North Tonawanda, are embracing their golden years with creativity and conviviality – and many celebrations, including National Assisted Living Week (Sept. 8-14).

For more information about Wheatfield Commons, contact Administrator Christine O'Connor or Marketing Director John Tomes at 716-475-7600. Visit Wheatfield Commons on Facebook.
