Antikickback – Business Courtesies, Gifts, and Entertainment Policy

Purpose:

DePaul (sometimes referred to as “Organization” or “the Organization”) recognizes that there are legitimate and lawful reasons to accept or provide reasonable business courtesies. However, in healthcare, business courtesies pose a risk for conflict of interest or fraud and/or abuse related to anti-kickback laws and regulations. The Federal Anti-Kickback law prohibits the offer of payment, solicitation, or receipt of anything of value to induce or reward the referral of Federal health care program recipients, such as Medicare and Medicaid recipients. The Federal Anti-Kickback statute also prohibits the payment or receipt of any remuneration that is intended to induce the purchasing, leasing, or ordering of any item or service that may be reimbursed, in whole or in part, under a Federal health care program. It also prohibits the payment or receipt of any remuneration that is intended to induce the recommendation of the purchasing, leasing, or ordering of any such item or service.

The purpose of this policy is to assure that the Organization complies with Federal Anti-Kickback laws. The policy provides guidance for providing business courtesies.

For the purpose of this policy, the following definitions apply:

1. Affected Individuals: All persons who are affected by the required provider’s risk areas including the required provider’s employees, the chief executive and other senior administrators, managers, contractors, agents, subcontractors, independent contractors, and governing body and corporate officers.
2. Business Courtesies: A business courtesy is anything of value, a favor, or a benefit provided free of charge or at a charge less than fair market value in the context of a business relationship. The Policy applies to gifts, entertainment, and hospitality involving the Organization’s employees or Board members and its referral sources and business partners intended to enhance business relationships and/or further their mutual business interests. Examples include gifts, entertainment, or hospitality for the purposes of inducing:
  - Referrals for DePaul’s services or treatment;
  - The purchasing, leasing, or ordering of any item or service; or
  - The recommendation of the purchasing, leasing, or ordering of any such item or service.
3. Immediate Family Member: For the purpose of this policy, an immediate family member is any person who is related by blood or marriage, or whose relationship with the employee or Board member is similar to that of persons who are related by blood or marriage. An immediate family member of a person includes:
  - The person’s spouse;
  - Natural or adoptive parent, child, or sibling;
  - Stepparent, stepchild, stepbrother, or stepsister;
  - Father-in-law, mother-in-law; son-in-law; daughter-in-law; brother-in-law; or sister-in-law;

- Grandparent or grandchild; and
  - Spouse of a grandparent or grandchild.
4. Nominal Value: DePaul has determined that items with a value of $75.00 or less to be of nominal value.
  5. Potential Referral Source: A potential referral source includes a physician, other healthcare provider, or party who could reasonably be a source of referral of individuals or patients to the Organization for services or treatment.
  6. Remuneration: Any type of direct or indirect payment, bribe, rebate, or other type of inducement.

Policy:

2. It is the policy of DePaul that gifts, entertainment, and other benefits will not be provided to a potential referral source, except as permitted by this policy.
